

ELDERLY CARE HOME ARTSVABUYN

A 24-hour service provision center Artsvabuyn was founded in November 2006 in Artsvanik village, Syunik marz. The Center provides accommodation and a variety of 24-hour services to those single elderly and disabled persons without permanent residence who have partially or completely lost their self-care ability and are in need of daily care.

Goal

Provide 24-hour care to those elderly and disabled who are in need of ongoing care; help them meet their vital social and psychological needs as well as promote their social adaptation.

Beneficiaries

Single elderly and disabled persons without shelter

Services

- Psycho- social services
- 24-hour nursing care
- Provision of nutrition services

For making service provision more complete and comprehensive the center cooperates with other relevant bodies in the community.

Artsvabuyn center currently serves 12 beneficiaries but the upcoming enlargement of the center will enable to concurrently render services up to 40 persons.

Partners

The Zangezur Copper-Molybdenum Combine has had a great contribution to the renovation and furnishing of the Artsvabuyn center.
